

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

INTRODUCTION.

This number of the manual is compiled for the use of the last legislature to be convened in the present century. The early pages present the names, alphabetically arranged, of all the members of the state senate from the adoption of a permanent constitution in 1784 to the present time, including the senate elected in 1898. During this period there have been ninety-five annual sessions of twelve senators, and eleven biennial sessions of twenty-four senators. There have been 1,412 elections to the senate, and noting re-elections and contested elections it appears that 762 different persons have held seats in the senate of this state. The early pages of this volume were printed before the organization of the present senate. The name of the president will appear in the later pages.

The following table and the lists of New Hampshire men at Bunker Hill were prepared by Hon. George C. Gilmore of Manchester, N. H.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMISSIONER.

To His Excellency Hiram A. Tuttle, Governor, and the Honorable Council:

January 24, 1889, the following order was submitted to the city council of Boston, and February 6 it was passed unanimously and approved by the mayor:

"Ordered, That a special committee of five members of the common council, with such as the board of aldermen may join, be appointed to arrange and prepare four bronze tablets, to bear the names of the American patriots killed or fatally injured at Bunker Hill, June 17, 1775; said tablets to embrace the requisite list of names now in the hands of the record commissioner, with such other names that belong in the list; said tablets to be completed in season for erection on the occasion of the coming celebration of the anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill, June 17, 1889; said tablets to be placed in such position as the committee may determine in connection with the site of the battle."

The design of the committee, to place the four memorial tablets at or near the entrance of Monument Square, not being approved by the directors of the Bunker Hill Monument association, who control the same, they were placed on Winthrop square, Charlestown. The city of Boston published the proceedings at the celebration the following 17th of June, at the dedication of the memorial tablets, in an elegant volume, "A Memorial of the American Patriots who fell at the Battle of Bunker Hill, June 17, 1775, with an account of the Dedication of the Memorial Tablets on Winthrop Square, Charlestown, June 17, 1889," containing the oration delivered on the occasion by Hon. John R. Murphy, and also the orations of Daniel Webster, delivered June 17, 1825, at the laying of the corner-stone of the Bunker Hill monument, and on its completion, June 17, 1843, a copy of which can be found in the State library.

New Hampshire having an interest in common with Massachusetts to perpetuate in bronze the names of her dead patriots who gave up their lives at Bunker Hill, Governor Sawyer and council appointed the writer special commissioner to confer with the committee appointed by the city council of Boston, and furnish them with the names of New Hampshire men killed or mortally wounded, to be placed on the proposed memorial tablets. A printed list of names was furnished the Hon. William H. Whitmore, chairman of the board of record commissioners of Boston, who was preparing the list of names to be placed on the memorial tablets, and by him substantially adopted; what was most desired, however,—that one of the four proposed be made a distinctive New Hampshire tablet, on which to place all the names of the men from this state,—was not granted; the main objection to them as finally arranged was placing the names of the New Hampshire officers killed with those from Massachusetts, without designating their former residence. The printed list furnished Mr. Whitmore is herewith reprinted, with additions and corrections time has developed, and I most sincerely hope that the day is not far distant when a bronze tablet will be erected in the State Capitol park to the memory of the brave men from New Hampshire who perished at Bunker Hill.

To Mr. Whitmore the writer is under great obligation for courtesies extended and documents furnished him, and also to the Honorable Secretary of State of Massachusetts, and his assistants, Messrs. Strong and Tracy, for unlimited research of the papers on file in his office.

No. 42. Broderick, Joseph, private, of Captain Daniel Moore's company, Stark's regiment, enlisted May 1, and disappeared from roll June 17, being allowed on roll, pay for one month and eighteen days, but it appears no one ever took his money. State Papers, Vol. 14, p. 70. Generally supposed to have been killed.

No. 43. Patten, James, private, of Captain John Marcy's company, Reed's regiment, enlisted May 10; allowed on roll, pay for one month and eleven days. On roll, died June 17.

No. 44. Melvin, John, private, of Captain John Marcy's company, Reed's regiment, enlisted May 25; allowed on roll, pay for twenty-four days. On roll, died June 17.

The last three men are supposed to have been wounded, and to have died, as on the same roll Joseph Farwell is marked killed June 17.

No. 46. Day, Stephen, private, Keene; Stark's regiment, Stiles's company; wounded, died August 17, 1775.

No. 47. McGrath, Daniel, private, Amherst; Prescott's regiment, Corey's company; wounded, died a prisoner, August 10, 1775. Name No. 9, page 90, Memorial Volume; the records regarding this man are a perfect puzzle.

No. 48. Minot, Joseph, corporal, Hollis; Prescott's regiment, Parker's company; killed. Name on the bronze tablets as from "Westford," Mass.; on original muster and pay roll, Hollis. He was taxed in Hollis in 1775. See History of Hollis, p. 138.

Bigelow, Benjamin, private, Nelson; Prescott's regiment, Wyman's company; wounded, prisoner in Boston jail and living September 14, 1775. Can any person give information what became of him?

No. 31. On original muster and pay roll—"David Scott, died June 2," or "22," in very pale ink; and of a recent date, apparently in a different handwriting and very dark ink, "Died June 16, 1775."

No. 32. "Joseph Taylor," on muster and pay roll, "enlisted June 13, and paid to Aug. 1." On October 6 reported "Dead"; date of death not given, and marked in pencil, "Killed."

All the foregoing forty-eight men's names, except Day's and Bigelow's, are on the Massachusetts memorial tablets.

Daniel Evans of Allenstown was a member of the Provincial Congress, sitting at Exeter in May, 1775. When that congress adjourned, he was known to have gone to Haverhill, Mass. A Daniel Evans of Captain Richardson's company was killed June 17, 1775, the name being No. 50 on the memorial tablets, residence unknown. As Daniel Evans never returned to Allenstown, he was presumably the man.

—State Papers, Vol. 10, p. 607.

Thursday, June—19—1783.

Vote for the Committee of Safety to provide an office at Exeter for Mr. Gorham, the Commissioner appointed by Congress to settle accounts with this State.

—State Papers, Vol. 8, p. 980.

From the above, and it is all there is to be found, it is evident the government or congress of the United States assumed the indebtedness of New Hampshire, in part at least, for the expenses of the Revolutionary struggle for independence; and the question naturally arises, where are the records, muster and pay rolls? Were they not taken away by Gorham, and now in the possession of the government at Washington, or possibly destroyed by the British troops when they burned the government buildings at Washington in 1814?

Of Stark's regiment of thirteen companies, who participated in the battle of Bunker Hill, June 17, 1775, but two muster rolls, one original and one a copy, are known to be in existence,—the original, that of Captain Archelaus Townes, in the Historical Society rooms at Concord; the copy, that of Captain Gordon Hutchins's company, in Vol. 17, p. 3, State Papers—and not one original pay roll, only copies, and without the signatures of the men. Of Reed's regiment of ten companies, one muster roll—"Muster Roll of Captain Ezra Towne's Company in the Regiment of Foot, commanded by Colonel James Reed; belonging to the Army of the United Colonies of North America," a complete descriptive roll, giving the names of the men, rank, time of enlistment, where born, age, place of abode, occupation, height, color of the hair and eyes (See Vol. 16, p. 52, Mass. rolls)—is in existence; also the roll of Captain Hezekiah Hutchins's company (Vol. 14, p. 76) and copies of pay rolls without signatures of the men.

Perhaps the following record, never published before, may throw some light as to how Colonel Stark obtained his fifteen companies:

At a Meeting of the officers from the Province of N. Hampshire at Cambridge—April—26—1775.

Voted,—1. Col. John Hale—Chairman.

Voted,—2. Maj. Peter Coffin—Clerk.

Voted,—3. That the officers encourage their men to tarry here that incline until they hear from the Congress of N. Hampshire, and rely on the Honor of the Said province.

Voted,—4. That no officers take listing orders under the province of the Massachusetts Bay—till they hear from the Congress aforesaid.

Voted,—5. That the officers reccommend it to the Soldiers not to enlist under any officers belonging to the Bay Province, till they hear from Said Congress at N. Hampshire.

Voted,—6. That Col. John Stark take charge of the men till they hear from the Congress aforesaid.

A True Copy, Test.

PETER COFFIN, Clerk.

Col. John Stark had fifteen companies in his regiment up to June 12, when two companies, Whitcomb's and Thomas's, were transferred on that date to Col. James Reed—see Reed's letter to Committee of Safety, Province Papers, Vol. 7, page 518—and thirteen up to July 3 to 7. See Quartermaster Parkinson's accounts of rations issued to Colonel Stark's regiment, State Papers, Vol. 14, p. 153; also General Nathaniel Folsom,—“Chief Commander of the New Hampshire forces under the Commander-in-Chief of the New England Army"—to Committee of Safety, dated Medford, June 23, 1775, where he was writing of Stark's regiment, "it still consisting of 13 companies," Province Papers, Vol. 7, p. 529; and the letter of General Henry Dearborn, who was a captain in Stark's regiment, afterwards secretary of war, and commander-in-chief of the American forces in the war of 1812, History of Nottingham, N. H., page 223.

General Washington took command of all the troops around Boston June 27, 1775; between that date and the 7th of July three more companies were transferred from Stark's regiment: One, Archelaus Townes's, 54 men, to Col. Ebenezer Bridge's Massachusetts regiment, and two, William Scott's, 64 men, and Jeremiah Stiles's, 72 men, to Col. Paul D. Sargent's Massachusetts regiment. Colonel Sargent was a resident of Amherst, N. H., but engaged in the service of Massachusetts.

Number of New Hampshire men on the Bunker Hill rolls, omitting all who were discharged prior to or enlisting after June 17, 1775: Stark's regiment, 842; Reed's regiment, 599; Massachusetts regiments, 210; total, 1,651; and in other Massachusetts regiments, not in the battle of Bunker Hill, same date, 317 New Hampshire men; total, 1,968; and June 22, Col. Enoch Poor arrived there with eight companies of his regiment.

There is great difficulty in locating the residence of the men, even when the town is given in the rolls, as there are 74 in Massachusetts and New Hampshire having the same name, and rising 100 changed from what they were in 1775.

Captain Bancroft's company from Dunstable, with 42 men from that town, in the battle of Bunker Hill—some were killed, others wounded. Dunstable was originally one town; in 1775, two, one in Massachusetts, the other in New Hampshire. The New Hampshire Dunstable is now Nashua.

New Hampshire paid two hundred and seventy pounds for ninety guns lost at the battle of Bunker Hill.

GEORGE C. GILMORE,

MANCHESTER, February 12, 1891.

ELECTION SERMONS.

The annual election sermons for almost a half century of a state government under the constitution of 1784 were a conspicuous and respected feature of the inauguration ceremonies at the beginning of a political year. In their private and public relations, the clergy were held in high esteem, and the appointment of a preacher of the election sermon was a special recognition of eminence in the clerical profession. With the exception of 1793 a sermon was preached at each inauguration of a governor from 1784 to 1831, and in 1861, a critical period in the history of the state and nation, Rev. Henry E. Parker, D. D., preached the last election sermon in this historic series.

All the sermons, with the exception of the one preached in 1789 by Rev. Oliver Noble, and the one preached in 1795 by Rev. John Smith, were printed. Only a few complete sets of these sermons are preserved. A list of the preachers of election sermons follows:
